

January

Ms. Rudnick's monthly reading challenge: Complete all boxes of the reading challenge.

Color in the boxes as you finish. Get a signature from a parent.

Bring this to the library and get a free book!

Read a book upside down	Read an entire cereal box.	Read a book with a 	Read "Three Hens & a Peacock" by Lester Laminack.	Re-read a favorite book.	Read about a strange plant.
Read a fortune cookie. 	Read in a dark closet with a flashlight.	Read about space.	Read an article about a squirrel.	Read a mystery.	Read a How-To book.
Read an encyclopedia article that starts with letter C.	Read a book with your pajamas on backward.	Read five recipes. 	Read "Let's Do Nothing!" by Tony Fucile.	 Read with fake glasses.	Read the funniest book you see on the shelf.
 Read in an empty bathtub.	Read "Ish" by Peter H. Reynolds.	Read something with a list.	Read a poem about chocolate cake.	Read a book about opposites.	Read about hibernation.
Read aloud to a family member.	Read an I Spy book.	Read "Those Darn Squirrels" by Adam Rubin.	Read "The Popcorn Book" by Tomie dePaola.	Read the lyrics to a song. 	Read a bk written in 2001.

Parent/Guardian Signature: _____

Student's Name and homeroom: _____